- Staff received RSE training last year. This year, RSE (Relationship and Sexuality Education) lessons for all class groups will take place simultaneously over a six week period. Notification will go home in advance.
- The Board of Management annual newsletter went home to all families in June of last year. The same will occur this year. The school also continues to seek the views of parents through the Parent Association. The school principal attends all monthly Parent Association meetings.
- Parents of pupils who are receiving additional help with their work meet with the support and class teachers at regular intervals throughout the year.
